A BIT OF HEAVEN IN '47

By PAUL D. EMMONS

VISHINSKY vs. WINCHELL.

That's a pretty hot combination. Neither of those guys is apt to pull his punches, and neither of them has so far.

Winchell has made his reply to Vishinsky's charge that Walter is a radio liar, and has shown up some of the lies that Vishinsky has been guilty of. According to Winchell, it is a two G proposition America is on the Giving end and Russia is on the Grabbing end, where we give, she loots.

Winchell's statement that Russia has 300 divisons of her army still in service and strategically placed, as against our present total of 15, and is building 50,000 airplanes as against our 4000 is rather ominous. God knows where this thing is going to end.

Two things are on the side of peace. First, the Russian people are undobutedly weary of war and don't want another. Secondly, their domestic economy at the present time is in no shape to stand the strain of another war. So for a while it looks like a waiting game.

And that's the way both sides seem to be playing it. Russia is waiting for a bust in this country which will discredit the capitalistic system. Were waiting for Joe Stalin to pass out of the picture, which might bring internal strife between opposing factions fighting to control the Communist party, with a consequent collapse of the Communist system.

Uncle Joe must be over seventy but he's a tough old bird, and there's no telling how long he'll last, or what he'll do before he croaks. He may try to stave off any revolution in the Communist party by picking his own successor and instabing him in office before he checks out himself.

In that case Molotov would seem to be the likeliest fair-haired boy at the present moment, but a three-cornered fight between him and Gromyko and Vishinsky might be excellent for the peace of the rest of the World unless one of them should try to solidify his position by enlisting the patriotic fervor of his countrymen through starting a war with the U. S. A.

Time will tell.

Well, to pas to a lighter subject, Lighthorse Harry Truman is back in jail again. That's what he calls the White House, adding the further comment that most of its inmates like it. Perhaps the fact that it is a jail accounts for his numerous escapes from it.

What's the next one going to be? Suppose our Presidetial Jail Bird should take it into his head to escape over to Europe? What would happen if he made a tour of England, France, Germany, Spain and Italy?

There's no telling—he may do it yet, although it doesn't seem likely. But if he did hop the pond, there'd be one pretty sure thing. He'd be greeted everywhere with the outstretched hand and the open palm. But what he'd be expected to put into 'em would come out of the pockets of the American tax payer.

Well, that's what we're here for anyway, apparently.

WILMINGTON HIGH LOSES TO ALUMNI

Wilmington high school football team lost to the Alumni 7 to 0 Saturday. The Alumni failed to score until the second period with tally coming from a double reverse and lateral from Ritchie to Pickowitz to Kelley. The latter went over for the touchdown. The conversion was made by a center rush by Foye. Outstanding was the blocking and kicking of Spears left halfback and Sullivan, right end of the high school. George Shephard of the Alumni received a dislocated left shoulder and was rushed to St. John's hospital in the police cruiser. Many fine plays were executed by the Quarterback, John Ritchie. It was estimated that 2000 attended the game and moving pictures were taken.

In the high school lineup were: Tarricone, R. Ritchie, W. Thomas, J. Tarricone, Stewart, F. Johnson, R. Drew, C. Sullivan, Chisholm, R. Goss, A. Spear, R. Garland. Substitutes: J. Chin, DW. Goss, L. Woods, R. Pipes, N. Sharpe, J. Landers, W. Spring, R. Surrette, R. Woods, R. Taylor, J. Mackey, P. Mooney.

For the Alumni: J. Woods, C. Ritchie, D. Charest, Shepheard, J. Forson, J. Hardy, L. Ring, J. Ritchie, G. Shepheard, R. Foye, G. Pickowitz. Subs—R. Woods, J. Gordon, H. Stewart, Detato, J. Kelley, L. O'Connell.

Officials were S. Colucci, referee, H. Stewart, head linesman, and L. Cushing, field judge.

Harry Goodearl of Federal Street was taken to St. John's hospital Lowell yesterday in the ambulance in charge of Chief Francis S. Hoban.

Mrs. Anna Ajotte of Andover street is a patient at St. John's hospital, Lowell.

Saturday night the W. Wilmington Community Club will conduct a dancing social with Mrs. George Beal pianist and Roland Deming on the drums.

Christmas Mail For Overseas

Arrangements have been made by the Post Office Department in cooperation with the War and Navy Departments, including the Marines, for the acceptance of Christmas parcels for members of our armed forces serving outside the continental United States.

While requests for parcels from members of our armed forces are not required, many persons in this country will undoubtedly wish to send special Christmas parcels to their loved ones overseas, and these instructions are, therefore, issued with the view of assuring their delivery on time and in good condition. Patrons should endorse each such gift parcel "Christmas parcel" and special effort will be made to effect delivery of all Christmas parcels mailed during the period stated below in time for Christmas.

Christmas parcels for overseas personnel should be mailed during the period beginning October 15, 1947, and ending November 15, 1947, the ealier the better. Parcels destined for delivery in Japan, Korea, and the islands in the Pacific should be mailed as early as possible during the period stated, preferably not later than November 1, in view of the distances involved.

It is suggested, however, that parcels for Navy and Marine Corps personnel serving in the most remote areas be mailed not later than October 15. Parcels for such personnel known to be in an area which would permit mailing subsequent to October 15 may be deposited for mailing at a date selected by the sender.

Chrismas cards for Army personell overseas may be mailed at any time but patrons should mail such cards prior to November 15, 1947, of they are to have a reasonable expection of delivery prior to Christmas. The War Department advises that greeting cards for soldiers overseas must be sent in sealed envelopes and prepaid at the first-class rate.

Christmas parcels for armed forces overseas shall not exceed 70 pounds in weight of 100 inches in length and girth combined. The various services have pointed out that members of the armedforces are amply provided with food and clothing and the public is urged not to include such matter in gift parcels. The public can ascertain what articles their relatives and friends overseas can secure locally by correspondence with such person and should limit their gifts to articles not readily obtainable by the recipient.

Boxes for overseas transmission should be stronger than containers used for parcels which do not leave our shores. Because of the great distance these parcels must be transported and the handling and storage they must undergo, it is absolutely necessary that all articles for overseas be packed in boxes of metal, wood, sold fiberboard, or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard, testing at least 200 pounds.

Each box should be securely tied with strong cord, preferably by four separate pieces, two lengthwise and two crosswise, knotted at crossings. Sealing the flaps with gummed tape where they meet strengthens the box, but the use of such tape alone is not satisfactory, since the tape loosens if the boxes become wet or exposed to moist atmosphere.

Boxes should contain sufficient cushioning material so that the contents will be tightly packed to prevent any rattling or loosening of the articles within the parcels. Unless completely packed and tightly filled, boxes are likely to be crushed.

It is also desirable that all fiberboard boxes be securely wrapped in heavy paper if available, which materially strengthens the boxes. The boxes should be tied as above suggested, before and after applying the heavy wrappers. Sealed boxes should bear the printed inscription authorizing opening for postal inspection.

Plastics in the Nursery

PLASTICS, an accepted and necessary part of our daily lives, have entered the nursery with the promise of lots of fun for the kiddies. Now it is possible to have plastic toys for the children; toys that will stand the loving bang and batter of tiny tots having a good time.

Your own kiddies will no doubt be as delighted with these engaging characters as the young lady in the above photograph. Many old time favorites are in the group...clown puppies, kangaroos, and even a Santa Claus.

These inflatable toys made of "Vinylite" plastic are both safe and practical. The children can even take them into the water if they want to. Being waterproof and color fast they are easy to keep clean; only need to be wiped with a damp cloth. Strong and durable, too, in spite of their soft and cuddley appearance.

When deflated, these balloon-like toys take up very little space and are easily stored or packed for a trip. With the busy holiday season not far off, they will help solve the problem of keeping the kindergarten set occupied and amused.

STRESS NEED OF MORE FOOTBALL EQUIPMENT

At a recent meeting of the Police Associates, President Simon Cutter, Gardner Ritchie and Steven Colucci were appointed to meet with the school committee at the meeting which was held recently in the Roman house. The purpose of the meeting with the school committee was to urge them to appropriate the sum of $220 more to be used to properly equip the football squad. President Simon Cutter stated that it was dangerous to have any boy play football without the proper equipment. He recommended that the school committee allot the sum to purchase what was necessary and to appear before the town finance committee for an additional amout and to state just what the money was used for. Mr. Ritchie told how the town of Tewksbury alloted the sum of $2000 for sports and that in this town all that was set aside here was $500, which proved inadequate. He stated that it was the duty of the school Committee to see that each boy was properly equipped before entering any sport inasmuch as serious injuries could come from such a condition. Three hundred dollars of the $500 was used this year for cleaning the equipment which left very little to purchase extras. The school committee thanked the members of the Police Associates for coming before the board and for taking their stand in helping the boys procure the much needed equipment.

Services For H. Goodearl

Harry Goodearl, 56, of Federal st., died at a Lowell hospital after a brief illness. He had been a resident of the town for 35 years and was a member of the senior choir of the Congregational church. He is survived by his wife, Esther; two sons, Elmer of Reading and Roy of Springfield, and a brother, William. Funeral services were held at the Nichols Funeral Home on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Local Girl Honored

A shower was held Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Charles N. Cosseletto at the home of Mrs. Charles Ingalls of Glen road. The honor guest received a wide array of beutiful and useful gifts.

Before her marriage Mrs. Cosseletto was Phyllis M. Ramsey of 27 Butler avenue, Lowell. With her husband she will make her home in this town.

SERVICES FOR MRS. ELIZABETH SPEAR

Mrs. Elizabeth (MacDermitt) Spear died at her home on Florence avenue, South Tewksbury, Wednesday. She is survived by her husband, Charles L. Correspondence Courses For Veterans

Honorably discharged Massachusetts veterans of World War II are entitled to enroll, without charge, in any class of correspondence course offered by the Division of University Extension, Massachusetts Department of Education, for a period of four years.

This privilege is extended to Bay State Veterans by Chapter 439 of the acts of 1946, which provides that the World War II veteran who served 90 days may enroll in these courses without charge. The cost of textbooks [illegible] be borne, however by the enrollee.

William J. Blake, manager of the Veterans Administration's Boston Regional Office, explained that veterans will not be charged any "eligibility time" under the G. I. Bill for pursuing these courses of training. Eligibles may present their honorable discharge, original or photostat, at 200 Newbury Street, Boston, or at the first meeting of the class they desire to enter.

A booklet describing the wide variety of day and night classes and courses offered by the Department is available at the Newbury Street office. Veterans who have [illegible] Blake added, may find it helpful to follow Department studies in preparation for college work.

How Deafened People Now Hear Clearly

Science has now made it possible for the deafened to hear faint sounds. It is a hearing device so small that it fits in the hand and enables thousands to enjoy sermons, music and friendly companionship. Accepted by the American Medical Association's Council on Physical Therapy. This device does not require separate battery pack, battery wire, case or garment to bulge or weigh you down. The tone is clear and powerful. So made that you can adjust it yourself to suit your hearing as your hearing changes. The makers of Beltone, Dept. 22, 1450 West 19th St., Chicago 8, Ill. are so proud of their achievement that they will gladly send free descriptive booklet and explain how you may get full demonstration of this remarkable hearing device in your own home without risking a penny. DOUBLE PURPOSE

A young man was anxious to have his fortune told. He went to a swami. As he sat at the table he noticed the crystal ball had two holes in it.

"What's the idea of the holes?" he asked.

"On Wednesday night," explained the swami, "I go bowling."

MODERN MARCO POLO

Not many years ago, a coast-to-coast journey was quite an event. And "going abroad" was a "thrill-of-a-lifetime" experience that fell to comparatively few fortunate souls.

Upon their return, the self-assurance of these travelers was a matter of considerable interest to the folks at home. Their scope of understanding was so much wider. Their opinions on international developments were sought and treated with appropriate respect. Their stories of strange sights and fascinating adventures were eagerly attended by curious listeners.

The advantages of travel have not diminished a bit with the passage of time. But today those advantages are enjoyed by many hundreds of thousands of young men who, in yesteryear, might never have ventured beyond the borders of their own home state.

These young men—members of Uncle Sam's new Regular Army—are a new and traveled generation . . . a nucleus from which can come the statesmen, the diplomats, and foreign affairs experts of tomorrow.

Many of these men have been overseas and returned from occupational duties abroad. Many others are on foreign soil today. Many more will depart on their first tours in the future.

Theirs is an enviable experience that will be of lasting value to them and to their nation. By bringing home to share with their relatives and neighbors an intimate knowledge of customs, interests and attitudes of foreign folk, they will help to further our critically important understanding of world affairs.

SLAP-STICK

V. A. Poker

Tired of reading and the radio the two patients in a veterans' hospital called for a deck of playing cards. The nurse didn't have any. "What's in that little box?" asked one outpatient patient.

"Just filing cards," she replied.

"Let's have 52 of them," said the patient. "We'll get by."

Poker was played with fervor and a pot got hot. Real money was piled between the fistfuls of phony cards. The showdown patient No. 1 spread out a full house—3 appendectomies and 2 hernias—and reached for the currency.

"Take your hand off the dough," said No. 2. "I've got 5 transfusions."

Just Hot Air

The disconsolate-looking farmer stood on the steps of a midwest town hall during the progress of a political meeting.

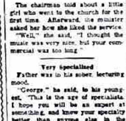
"Do you know who is talking in there now?" asked a stranger, pausing for a moment, "or are you just going in?"

"No sir. I've just come out," the farmer answered. "Congressman Tallow is talking in there."

"What about?"

"Well," continued the countryman, passing a knotted hand across his forehead, "he didn't say!"

MODERN CHILD



The chairman told about a little girl who went to the church for the first time. Afterward, the minister asked her how she liked the service.

"Well," she said, "I thought the music was very nice, but your commercial was too long."

Very Specialized

Father was in his sober, lecturing mood.

"George," he said, to his youngest, "This is the age of specialists. I hope you will be an expert at something, and know your specialty better than anyone else in the world. Is there anything, George, that you can do better than anyone else?"

"Yes father, there is," replied the quick-witted youngster. "I can read my own handwriting."

Wide Awake

Fu Lung, who had just opened a laundry on one corner, gazed appreciatively at the signs on the business establishments on the other three corners.

On the bakery was a sign, reading: "We never close." Over the garage, the sign read: "We stay open all night", and over the restaurant: "We never sleep."

The following morning over Fu Lung's laundry appeared the neat handprinted sign: "Me Wake Too."

Give Them an Eyeful

"Does your wife go to church to see what other women wear?" asked snoopy Mr. Harris.

"Oh, no," rejoined the newly rich Mr. Updyke, "my wife has so much money to spend on clothes now that she goes to church to let the other women see what she wears!"

Well Informed

In a Pacific landing during the war, the colonel rushed up just as the unloading net ripped and dumped an avalanche of duffel bags from the transport.

"Does the sergeant know about this?" he demanded.

"He ought to, sir," a private replied. "He's under 'em."

COOLING DRINK

Guest—I want something tall, cold and lots of gin in it.

Host—Here's my wife.

Just Like Men

First Fish (to second fish)—Let's duck. Here comes that bore who is always bragging about the size of the fisherman he got away from.

Befuddled

A college professor, well known for his absent-mindedness, was gazing reflectively at the passing landscape when the train conductor asked for his ticket. The professor searched himself frantically, but in vain.

"That's all right, professor," the conductor said. "I know you and I'm sure you have your ticket. When you find it, just mail it to the company."

"It isn't that," the professor said earnestly. "What I want to know is, where in the world am I going?"

TOWN BOWLING LEAGUE

The Town Bowling league will open its season tonight at the local alleys. The league will bowl on Monday and Tuesday nights with the following teams comprising the league. Team 1—McManus Bros., J. McManus captain; team 2—Boosters, Carl Connor captain; team 3—Buck Bros., Rodney Buck captain; team 4—Silver Lake Betterment, James Smalley captain; team 5—Benny's Radio, Benny Harrison, captain; team 6—West End, T. Koskevitch captain; team 7—Merri Mac's, F. McCabe captain; team 8—North End, Clarence Doucette, captain. The officers of the league are Arthur Lynch, president; Carl Connor, treasurer; Wesley Baker, secretary.

SEVERAL FIRES

The fire department answered a call from Box 133 Saturday night to the home of Ernest Currier on Burlington avenue. A fire believed to have started near the fireplace in the living room burned the rug and part of the wall. Friday night at 8 o'clock the apparatus went to the town dump on Salem street, and to a brush fire yesterday afternoon on Woburn street.

Churches Will Observe World Communion Oct. 5

The Rev. Dr. Frank Jennings, executive secretary of the Mass. Council of Churches, today called upon all Massachusetts Protestants to join in the eighth consecutive year for the observance of world-wide communion Sunday on October 5.

"In these days when the world is still filled with confusion and suffering, there is a real need for Christians everywhere to make much of this significant day," he said.

"The coming together of Christians about the Lord's table on the same day will be an expression of unity which all believers have in Christ. It will be a witness in a broken world to an unbroken fellowship of Christians everywhere."

Salad Parade

Salads lead the health parade because in them you eat so many fruits and vegetables before they get a chance to lose their vitamins and minerals. All through the ages people have turned to salads because they craved things fresh from garden and orchard. Besides, certain foods are more attractive and appealing served in their raw state, or in salad form.

Salads may accompany the main course, and then they are served on a side plate, but alongside the main course. If you want to entertain in a special way, the answer is a salad platter or salad bowl. Use fruit or vegetables as your taste dictates.

Don't forget the party or dessert salads which are in a class by themselves. These are full of fruit and even whipped cream, the fairy princesses of the salad world. Serve them for special occasions as a topping to a meal or as a party dish.

Frozen Banana Salad.
(Serves 10 to 12)

1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 3-ounce packages of cream cheese
2 tablespoons crushed pineapple
¼ cup maraschino cherries, cut in quarters
½ cup walnut meats, chopped
1 cup cream, whipped
2 ripe bananas
Crisp greens

Add lemon juice and salt to mayonnaise and stir in cheese. Add pineapple, cherries and nuts; fold in cream. Add bananas, cut in cubes. Turn into tray and place in automatic refrigerator. Freeze until firm, then serve sliced on crisp greens.

Here's a pretty salad that may be served either as a special salad or as an accompaniment.

Ginger Ale Pear Salad.
(Serves 6 to 8)

2 envelopes plain, unflavored gelatin
1 No. 2½ size can of pears
¼ cup maraschino cherry juice
3 tablespoons sugar
¼ cup lemon juice
2¼ cups ginger ale
Few drops red coloring
8 maraschino cherries

Soften gelatin in ½ cup of the liquid poured juice drained from can. Bring to a boil ½ cup pear syrup and stir in softened gelatin until dissolved. Add maraschino cherry juice, sugar, lemon juice and ginger ale. If a darker color is desired, add a few drops of red coloring. Rinse a shallow pan in cold water; arrange pear halves, cut side [illegible]. Top each with a cherry. Pour gelatin mixture over pears carefully so as not to dislodge pears. Chill until firm. To serve, cut gelatin into squares with a sharp knife and place on lettuce. Serve with desired dressing.

[illegible] serving a heavy dinner, there's nothing better than a crisp salad just bursting with vegetables. For example, a chef's salad is about the [illegible] or perhaps a cole slaw.

A true chef's salad is composed mainly of some of the salad [illegible] such as escarole, romaine, lettuce, raw spinach, endive, watercress, dandelion greens or celery cabbage. They may be arranged bouquet style or shredded and tossed lightly with an oil and vinegar dressing (sometimes a french dressing) just before serving time.

One or more of the following may be added for variety if you want to tease the palate: Sliced radishes, chopped green pepper, diced cucumbers, cut celery, sliced stuffed olives, tomato sections, sliced pickle, sieved hard-cooked eggs, rolled anchovies, minced onion rings, garlic salt, celery salt, celery seed, or a light sprinkle of thyme, curry powder or chili powder.

Here are some tempting variations for a cole slaw type of salad:

Plain Cole Slaw: 4 cups finely shredded cabbage, 1 tablespoon celery seed, 1 cup cooked salad dressing. Optional additions: 1 tablespoon either dill seed or caraway seed or mustard seed.

Carrot Slaw: 2 cups grated or shaved carrots, 2 cups cabbage, 1 teaspoon minced onion, 1 cup boiled salad dressing.

Slaw Deluxe: 3 cups shredded cabbage, 1 cup diced banana, ¼ cup chopped peanuts, 2 tablespoons catsup and 1 cup boiled salad dressing.

Pineapple Slaw: 2 cups shredded cabbage, 1 cup cut, drained pineapple, ¾ cup boiled salad dressing, 1 tablespoon celery seed and dash of paprika.

Spanish Slaw: 1½ cups cut cabbage, 1 cup diced tomatoes, 1 cup diced cucumbers, ½ cup chopped green pepper and ¾ cup of boiled salad dressing.

Two molded salads that may be served as an accompaniment are a pretty addition to the table:

Molded Grape Salad.
(Serves 6)

1½ tablespoons unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
1 cup orange juice
1 cup lemon juice
¾ cup sugar
1 cup seeded or seedless grapes
½ cup nutmeats
Lettuce

Soak gelatin in cold water for 5 minutes. Bring juices to a boil, add sugar and gelatin. Cool, and when thick, fold in grapes and nuts. Pour into individual molds and chill until firm. Serve in nests of lettuce.

Mixed Fruit Salad.
(Serves 6)

2 oranges, peeled and diced
3 slices canned pineapple, diced, or
1 cup pineapple tidbits
1 unpeeled red apple, diced
½ cup pitted dates, cut into pieces
1 cup seeded grapes, cut in half
½ cup mayonnaise
½ cup coconut, shredded, if desired

Mix fruit with mayonnaise and chill thoroughly. Serve on shredded lettuce, sprinkle with coconut, if desired.

Budget-wise homemakers are taking a second look at their budgets this season, and most of them are keeping one eye on their purse strings, while the other eye is glued to prices. One item that is getting extra consideration is meat.

There's hardly such a thing as a budget cut of meat anymore, but naturally there are some that are less expensive than others. Breast of lamb is among those as well as some of the beef cuts including tongue. If you like pork, you'll have to be satisfied with a suggestion of the flavor. [illegible] is good economy if it is beef or lamb because you can count on two or three meals as well as sliced meat for sandwiches. If you plan on one roast per week—carefully cooked so as to avoid expensive shrinkage—th[illegible] easy to use the economy items I've already mentioned to fill up [illegible] other days nicely.

Liver-Rice Cakes.
(Makes 10 cakes)

1 pound sliced pork liver
¼ cup shortening
½ small onion
1½ cups cooked rice
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 egg
1½ tablespoons milk
¼ cup milk

Fry the liver in the ¼ cup of shortening until nicely browned and let cool. Put the liver and onion through the food chopper. Add the rice, salt, pepper, egg, milk and mix well. Shape into small cakes and brown in ¼ cup of shortening until brown on both sides.

Barbecued Lamb Breast.
(Serves 4)

2 pounds breast of lamb
1 medium onion
½ cup chili sauce
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper
⅛ teaspoon red pepper
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 cup water

Cut lamb into 5 pieces. Season with salt and pepper. Place in a hot skillet with the fatty sides of the meat on the bottom so they will brown easily. Mix chili sauce, red pepper, vinegar and water and pour over lamb. Slice onion and place over meat. Cover. Simmer for 1½ hours, then remove lid and cook for about 20 minutes or until most of the barbecue sauce is absorbed.

A pot roast is very nice to have as the roast of the week, and then it's easy to use as sliced meat for supper, or ground and used for meat pies, stuffing for peppers, pinwheels with biscuit dough, etc. If you make it creole style, it will have plenty of flavor for other uses.

Creole Pot Roast.

5 pounds chuck of beef
¼ cup salad oil
Juice of 1 lemon
2 bay leaves
1 onion, minced
2 teaspoons allspice
5 teaspoons salt
Pepper
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
2 cups tomatoes

Mix oil, lemon juice and seasonings; rub well into meat. Dredge meat with flour and brown slowly in fat. Add the tomatoes. Cover closely and cook in a slow oven for about 4 hours or until meat is fork tender.

Swiss steak is cheaper than some cuts of meat, and the leftovers may be used as the meat from pot roast.

Cream Swiss Steak.

1½ pounds round or arm steak
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup flour
2 tablespoons lard
½ cup sliced onion
½ cup water
½ cup sour cream

Have steak cut 1½ to 2 inches thick. Season with salt and pepper and pound flour well into steak. Brown steak on both sides, in lard or drippings. Add remaining ingredients. Cover closely and simmer for about 3 hours, or until tender.

Rice-Beef Balls.

1½ pounds ground beef
½ cup uncooked rice
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon grated onion
1 can tomato soup
½ can water
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper

Mix meat, rice and seasonings. Shape into small balls and drop them into tomato soup to which the water, onion and green pepper have been added. Cook very slowly for 40 minutes. Serve with tomato sauce poured over them.

A few slivers of leftover meat are easily used in an attractive salad served in shells to make a substantial luncheon dish. Add eggs, cottage cheese and vegetables if you are some what shy of meat itself.

Here are two real economy dishes which you'll like for the cooler weather:

Breaded Oxtails.
(Serves 4)

2 oxtails
3 sprigs parsley, chopped
2 sprigs thyme
1 bay leaf
Salt and pepper
Dash of cayenne
1 egg, beaten
1 cup sifted dry bread crumbs

Wash oxtails and cut into 4-inch lengths. Cover with boiling water. Add parsley, thyme, bay leaves, salt, pepper and cayenne. Simmer tails until tender, about 2 to 3 hours. Let cool in stock. Drain meat, dip in egg and roll in crumbs. Fry in deep, hot fat (370 degrees) until brown.

Ham-Sweet Potato Puffs.
(Serves 5)

1 cup ground, cooked ham
2 cups mashed sweet potatoes
1 egg, beaten
¾ cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt

Combine ham, sweet potatoes and egg. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Add to ham mixture. Drop by spoonfuls onto a hot greased griddle. Brown on each side.

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

LYNN SAYS:
Add 'Beauty Touches'
To Vegetables

Curl your raw carrots by slicing them with a potato peeler and curling them around the finger. Slip off the curls and place them close together in a dish of very icy water. Let stand for one half an hour and the curl will stay.

When you broil ham for dinner, place corn or green beans in the dripping pan and let the vegetables catch the delicious juices.

For cooked carrots, fleck them with chopped chives or parsley by adding the latter to the melted fat you use for seasoning.

Season chopped, freshly cooked spinach with crumbled bacon and a dash of nutmeg. Top with hard-cooked egg white and yolk, separated and put through a sieve.

Scalloped or stewed tomatoes take on added color and flavor if you add a dash of herbs to them and also a suggestion of finely minced onion and chopped green pepper.
